

Go Move Shift – Christy Moore

Am

Born in the middle of the afternoon

 D G Am
In a horsedrawn carriage on the old A-5
The big twelve wheeler shook my bed

D Am D Em
You can't stay here the policeman said

Am G D Em
You'd better get born in some place else

Am G
Move along get along

Am G
Move along get along

F G Am
Go! Move! Shift

Am

Born in the common by a building site

 D G Am
Where the ground was rutted by the trail of wheels
The local Christian said to me

 D Am D Em
You'll lower the price of property

 Am G D Em
You'd better get born in some place else

Am G
Move along get along (x2)

F G Am
Go! Move! Shift

Am

Born at the back of a hawthorn hedge

 D G Am
Where the black hole frost lay on the ground
No eastern kings came bearing gifts

D Am D Em
Instead the order came to shift

Am G D Em
You'd better get born in some place else
Am G
Move along get along (x2)
F G Am
Go! Move! Shift

Am
The eastern sky was full of stars
D G Am
And one shone brighter than the rest
The wise men came so stern and strict
D Am D Em
And brought the orders to evict

Am G D Em
You'd better get born in some place else
Am G
Move along get along (x2)
F G Am
Go! Move! Shift

Am
Wagon tent or trailer born
D G Am
Last month, last year or in far off days
Born here or a thousand miles away
D Am D Em
There's always men nearby who'll say

Am G D Em
You'd better get born in some place else
Am G
Move along get along (x2)
F G Am
Go! Move! Shift

Am G
Move along get along (x2)
F G Am
Go! Move! Shift

Am G
Move along get along (x2)
F G Am
Go! Move! Shift
