

You're In A Bad Way – Saint Etienne (1993)
(Sarah Cracknell/Bob Stanley/Pete Wiggs)

Capo fret 4

Intro and groove alternates straight G chord with Em7 (on/off bass E string)

[Intro]

G Em7 C (x3)

[Verse]

G C G
Toast is burned and your coffee's cold
C G C G C D
And you leave all the post 'cause it's nothing but bills again
G C G
Home from work, put the TV on,
C G C G C D
Get your kicks watching Bruce on the old Generation Game

[Chorus]

Bm
Just dial my number, I've got some plans for you
Em
You're in a bad way and I can help you through
C Cm
You're in a bad way, every day seems just the same
G Em C D
Just dial my number or call my name.

[Verse]

G C G
Jeans are old and your hair's all wrong
C G C G C D
Don't you know that crewcuts and trainers are out again?
G C G C
Going out – you're feeling low
G C G C D
Running for cover, it looks like it's going to rain (what a shame)

[Chorus]

Bm
Just dial my number, I've got some plans for you
Em
You're in a bad way and I can help you through
C Cm
You're in a bad way, every day seems just the same
G Em C D
Just dial my number or call my name.

[Bridge]

G Em7 C (x3)

[Chorus]

Bm

Just dial my number, I've got some plans for you

Em

You're in a bad way and I can help you through

C

Cm

You're in a bad way, every day seems just the same

G

Em

C

D

Just dial my number or call my name.

[Outro]

G

C

G

You're in a bad way (you're in a bad way)

G

C

G

You're in a bad way (you're in a bad way)

G

C

G

You're in a bad way (you're in a bad way)

G

C

G

You're in a bad way (you're in a bad way), yeah...